

MRC Doctoral Training Partnership Discovery Medicine North

A unique, flexible, student-centered programme of PhD training

Fully MRC-funded PhD studentships
Application deadline: 21st January 2019

Research areas for October 2019 entry

Student choice is at the heart of our DTP, with an amazing range of 72 projects available with world-leading researchers across the North of England.

Research topics include cardiovascular disease, neuroscience, bioinformatics, immunology, microbiology, antibiotic resistance, aging and more. Projects with industry partners offer a unique opportunity undertake translational research. For a full list of projects, scan the QR code below and visit our website.

Programme benefits

Excellent supervision and a cross-disciplinary approach.

Bespoke training to develop your skills in every aspect of being a successful researcher and prepare you for your future career, inside or outside academia.

Studentships fully funded for 3.5yrs, including UKRI standard stipend (living costs), tuition fees, research costs, and travel allowance.

Additional funding available for internships, industry placements, research visits and exceptional training opportunities around the world.

Eligibility

UK and EU students only. First or Upper Second Class UK undergraduate degree or equivalent international qualification in a relevant subject required. Masters qualification or industry research experience an advantage. Applications also welcomed from physical sciences, maths or engineering students looking to apply knowledge to medical research.

An outstanding opportunity to improve lives

Website: <http://www.dimen.org.uk>

Twitter: @DiMeN_DTP

